

1COR and JUSTICE Public Law Seminar

PUBLIC LAW IN AN AGE OF AUSTERITY

Public law for private law practitioners: Achieving access to justice for your client

Thursday 4th June, 5.00-7.30pm, followed by drinks

Arundel House, 13-15 Arundel Street, Temple Place, London WC2R 3DX

The landscape of public law is changing, with cuts to legal aid and new funding models restricting traditional access to judicial review remedies. But the need to challenge state decisions is undiminished. 1COR's Public Law Team and JUSTICE bring you the latest on how to achieve access to justice for your client in the changing world of public law and judicial review.

Designed for private law practitioners and those with a cross-over practice, this evening seminar helps you to spot public law points and bring public law challenges. We also tackle the ongoing crisis of the civil justice system and consider current proposals for reform to meet unmet legal need.

Whether public law points arise already in your private client practice, or you want to gain a better understanding of public law and judicial review, 1COR's Public Law Team and JUSTICE offer their breadth of expertise and experience to navigate this area of law.

Programme

4.45 - 5.15pm Registration

5.15 - 5.25pm Welcome by Neil Garnham QC

5.25 - 5.45pm Introduction to Public Law: Judicial Review Principles, Procedure and Funding

Philippa Whipple QC

5.45 - 6.05pm Human Rights in an Age of Austerity – Moving towards a British Bill of Rights?

Adam Wagner and Angela Patrick, Director of Human Rights Policy, JUSTICE

6.10 - 6.55pm Breakout sessions

Each breakout session will focus on the latest developments in public law in your practice area, as well as practice and procedure tips for bringing challenges. Choose from the following topics:

| | |
|------------|--------------------------------|
| Education | Martin Downs and Amelia Walker |
| Healthcare | Jeremy Hyam and Shaheen Rahman |
| Inquests | Peter Skelton and Kate Beattie |

7.00 - 7.30pm The Future of Public Law in an Age of Austerity – Panel Discussion

Speakers: Angus McCullough QC; The Rt Hon Sir Stanley Burnton, Chair, JUSTICE Working Party, Delivering Justice in an Age of Austerity; Ruchi Parekh, Legal Officer, JUSTICE.

7.30pm Drinks Reception

The seminar is worth 2.5 CPD hours

Places are limited.

Please register by emailing lisa.pavlovsky@1cor.com stating your preferences for breakout sessions.