THE FAMILY PROCEEDINGS RULES 2010

As from 6th April, the new rules will provide a coherent and unified set of procedures that will radically replace the rules we currently work with....

“These are momentous times for all those involved in the Family Justice System.”

Speakers:

Adam Smith: Will be looking at the new procedures Children (Public & Private) + Matrimonial proceedings.

Adam has been practising family law for over 20 years, specialising in children's matters for the majority of his career. He is currently Chair of the Kent and Sussex FLBA and sits as the Bar's representative on the local Family Justice Council. He is also head of the family team in Brighton.

Christopher Rice: Will be looking at the new procedures in ancillary relief.

Christopher has practised in London and Sussex since his call in 1991 and specialised in family law for most of his career.

The Seminar has been registered for 2 CPD points and will cost £20 per person. Please make cheques payable to "One Crown Office Row".
