

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Amanda Minto

Call: 2009

Amanda is an Associate Member of Chambers having taken a role as an Attorney in the Cayman Islands in 2020.

Amanda is a highly experienced family law and private client litigator. She was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2009 and the Cayman Islands in 2021. Before relocating to Cayman, Amanda practised as a barrister specialising in divorce and ancillary financial matters.

Amanda is ranked as a 'Tier 1 Leading Junior' in the Legal 500 and is described as a "formidable advocate". Amanda continues to practise as a family law specialist in the Cayman Islands dealing with pre and post-nuptial agreements, divorce and ancillary financial matters in addition to the practical and financial arrangements for children.

'Extremely competent in financial remedy cases. Her written work is excellent and her advocacy impressive. She really is the best of the local bar.'

Legal 500 2021

"A formidable advocate who fights her clients' corner."

Legal 500 2019

'An excellent advocate on her feet.'

Legal 500 2018

Financial Remedies

Amanda's finance work frequently involves complicating factors such as companies and partnerships, hidden assets, financial conduct, bankruptcy and enforcement. Amanda further has experience of cases with an international element.

Children (Private Law)

In her private children practice Amanda frequently represents clients in intractable residence/contact disputes (including cases with issues of sexual, physical and/or emotional abuse) in addition to internal/external relocation cases and financial claims under Schedule 1.

Direct Access

Amanda accepts work from clients in accordance with our Public Access Scheme. You can view her profile on Barrister For Me here.

Awards

- Brick Court Chambers Scholar (2008)

Education

- City University London – Bar Vocational Course (2008-2009)
- LLB (Hons)

Memberships

- FLBA
- Court of Appeal Advocacy Service
- Bar Pro Bono Unit

Publications

- 'Creative Solutions in Financial Remedy cases in light of COVID-19', Family Law Journal (2021)