

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Anogika Souresh

Call: 2018

Anogika Souresh accepts instructions across a range of Family Law and Court of Protection matters.

Anogika is ranked in the Legal 500 as a Tier 1 Rising Star in Family: Children and Domestic Abuse. She is regularly instructed in factually and legally complex cases and is described in the Legal 500 as having “a strong intellect”.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Anogika worked at various international tribunals in The Hague and Cambodia. She has experience working on issues such as forced marriage and serious sexual offences. She has also worked in a consultant role on issues of human rights.

“Anogika is knowledgeable and empathetic. Her position statements are always well-researched and detailed. She has an eye for detail and explains points clearly and concisely to clients.”

Legal 500 2026

“Anogika is approachable, knowledgeable and conveys advice with a confidence that helps put clients at ease.”

Legal 500 2024

“Anogika has a strong intellect. She shows tenacity in her advocacy and is a fair and balanced opponent.”

Legal 500, 2023

“Anogika is always articulate in her work and prepares well for cases.”

Legal 500, 2023

Court of Protection

---

Anogika welcomes instructions across the full range of Court of Protection proceedings.

She has acted in cases in which both mental capacity and best interests are in dispute. She regularly appears on behalf of the Official Solicitor, local authorities, ICBs, and family members. Anogika has experience of acting in complex fact-finding hearings.

Anogika has a broad property and affairs practice.

Anogika acts in applications for the appointment and removal of deputies.

She advises and represents ICBs on applications for the appointment or displacement of Nearest Relatives.

Anogika regularly acts in cross-jurisdictional matters involving children and young persons and the Court of Protection. She is able to advise on cases which transfer from the Family Court to the Court of Protection. Anogika regularly appears in cases under the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court.

Selected Cases

- Re G (2025): Anogika represented a family member in a complex 3-day fact-finding hearing.
- A CCG v M (2022): Anogika represented a CCG in a case concerning the Covid-19 vaccination.

Children (Public Law)

---

Anogika regularly appears in care proceedings, acting for Local Authorities, Guardians, parents and grandparents. She has also been instructed on behalf of the police on disclosure matters in care proceedings.

Anogika is regularly instructed in complex multi-day final hearings. She has appeared in proceedings involving domestic abuse, mental health concerns, substance misuse, neglect, and non-accidental injury. Anogika is also instructed to appear in FDAC proceedings.

Anogika has appeared in proceedings involving children and the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court. Anogika regularly appears in the High Court. She has acted in cases involving the Official Solicitor when there have been issues of capacity to litigate. She is often requested on cases involving issues of capacity.

She has assisted in the training of social workers in preparation for giving evidence in care proceedings.

Selected Cases

- Re H (A Child) (2023): Anogika was instructed as junior counsel acting for the child in a 13-day fact-finding hearing.
- Re E (A Child) (2023): Anogika represented a parent in the High Court in a case concerning the deprivation of liberty of a child.

- A Local Authority v J&H (2022): Anogika was instructed in a final hearing concerning jurisdictional issues relating to SGOs and the placement of a child in an EU Member State.
- Re W (A Child) (2021): represented the Local Authority in a final hearing in the High Court concerning the deprivation of liberty of a child.

Children (Private Law)

---

Anogika represents both Applicants and Respondents in private law cases at all stages of proceedings, including applications for Child Arrangements Orders, Specific Issue Orders and Prohibited Steps Orders. She has been instructed in cases involving allegations of domestic and sexual abuse.

She has represented vulnerable clients and clients requiring an interpreter and is skilled at representing clients for whom English is not their first language. Anogika speaks Tamil fluently.

She has represented parents in internal relocation cases. She has also acted in adoption proceedings.

Anogika has appeared in multi-day fact-findings and final hearings. She has also undertaken appeals. Anogika has been instructed on complex private law disputes, including those being heard in the High Court.

In addition, Anogika accepts instructions to represent clients in children arbitration. She has undertaken training in Children Arbitration from Julie Stather, MCI Arb, who co-authored the paper to IFLA proposing the extension of the arbitration scheme to children matters.

Selected Cases

- Re J [2024] EWHC 922 (Fam): Anogika appeared as junior counsel at the interim stages in the High Court.
- B v C (2022): successfully appealed a child arrangements order made in proceedings under the Family Law Act 1996.

Direct Access

---

Anogika accepts work from lay clients in the area of family law, including children, in accordance with our Direct Access Scheme. You can view her profile to learn more here.

Awards

---

- Lincoln's Inn European Education Award (2018)
- Lincoln's Inn Denning Scholarship (2016)
- Lincoln's Inn Accommodation Award (2016)
- Lincoln's Inn Continuing Education Award (2016)

- Human Rights Lawyers Association Award (2016)
- Durham University Enhancing Employability Award (2016)
- Lincoln's Inn Hardwicke Entrance Award (2015)

Education

---

- University of Amsterdam (Joint Programme with Columbia Law School), International Criminal Law LLM (Distinction) (2019).
- City Law School, BPTC (Very Competent) (2018)
- Durham University, LLB (2:1) (2016)

Memberships

---

- FLBA
- Lincoln's Inn

Publications

---

- "Capacity, decision making, and the interplay with alcohol and substance abuse" Family Law Journal (October 2023)
- "The Adversarial vs Inquisitorial Dichotomy in International Criminal Law: A Redundant Conversation" 5 International Comparative Jurisprudence 81 (2019)
- "Jurisdictional Immunities of the State: Why the ICJ got it Wrong" 9 European Journal of Legal Studies 15 (2017)
- "MNCs and Human Rights: An Ongoing Struggle" Online Cambridge International Law Journal (2016)
- Contributor to the UK Human Rights Blog