

Emily Higlett

Call: 2025

Emily Higlett joined Chambers as a family law pupil in September 2025. During her first six, Emily acted as a supervisor to students at the University of Brighton Legal Clinic.

Prior to pupillage, Emily worked as a paralegal at a specialist family law firm and supported vulnerable clients as a Qualified Generalist Adviser with Citizens Advice. Alongside this, Emily co-founded the Blog Writing Team at Save the Children UK, coordinating volunteers to produce monthly blogs on current campaigns.

Before undertaking the Bar Course, Emily worked as a Wedding & Events planner, coordinating high-profile weddings and brand activations.

Awards

---

- Harmsworth Scholarship, Middle Temple, 2022
- Going Above and Beyond Award, nominated by Save the Children UK, December 2021
- The House of Commons Community Hero Award, nominated by Citizens Advice Bureau, June 2021

Education

---

- The Inns of Court College of Advocacy, Bar Course, Merit (2025)
- UCL, LLM (Master of Laws), Merit (2022)
- The University of Manchester, LLB Law with Criminology, First (2019)

Memberships

---

- Family Law Bar Association
- Middle Temple

Publications

---

- Court of Appeal clarifies judicial duties when making final care and placement orders at an IRH – Re D [2025] EWCA Civ 1362 – UK Human Rights Blog
- Rethinking fatherhood and parental responsibility: Re J, Re M and Re P (Parental Responsibility) [2026] EWCA Civ 344 – UK Human Rights Blog