

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Taryn J Lee QC

Call: 1992 QC: 2012

Taryn has over 25 years experience in the field of family law and hears both private and public law family cases. Her practice encompasses all courts but she has an extensive practice in High Court public law children matters.

She appears on behalf of local authorities, parents & step-parents, extended family members including grandparents, foster parents, interveners and guardians-ad-litem and often represents parents with mental health problems, severely learning-disabled parents and child parents.

Taryn is also a trained Family Mediator and Public, or Direct, Access accredited barrister which allows her to take instructions direct from members of the public.

Taryn previously served on the Lincoln Women's' Refuge Committee and was appointed a Recorder in 2008.

"Taryn is truly a force of nature. She is extremely bright with a very proper court presence and is also skilled beyond measure with difficult clients. Her warmth draws opponents in and charms judges."

Chambers & Partners 2022

"Taryn is a hard working, conscientious and skillful Barrister; she is forensic in the way she prepares her cases and has the ability to execute effective cross examination of expert witnesses in very complex family cases. Taryn is very approachable and is able to instil trust in clients; she is a joy to watch as an advocate and a pleasure to work with."

Legal 500 2021

"She is a high-quality silk. She's very approachable and very good with clients and junior counsel."
