

Georgina
Pein

Call: 2023

Georgina joined 1COR as a probationary tenant in September 2025. Prior to coming to Chambers, Georgina gained experience in public, employment and commercial law and worked on several high-profile cases. She also has experience appearing in the County Court.

During her legal studies, Georgina undertook a capital defence internship at a non-profit law firm in Philadelphia, where she assisted with appeals on behalf of incarcerated individuals. She has also volunteered with a range of organisations, including Refuge and Citizens Advice. Prior to being called to the Bar, Georgina worked as a professional chef in several London kitchens.

Georgina read History of Art at Cambridge University, obtaining a Starred First and ranking top of her cohort. For her GDL and BPTC she was awarded an Astbury Scholarship and the Queen Mother Scholarship from Middle Temple.
