

Lance Baynham

Call: 2021

Lance joined chambers as a pupil in October 2022 and is building his experience in all of chambers' practice areas.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Lance was the discrimination caseworker at South West London Law Centres and a visiting lecturer in public law at City Law School. During his legal studies, Lance volunteered for the School Exclusion Project and Free Representation Unit.

Immediately before starting pupillage, Lance cycled solo from London to Italy, going through ten countries en route and raising money for South West London Law Centres.
