

Elizabeth-Anne Gumbel QC

Call: 1974 QC: 1999

Elizabeth-Anne Gumbel QC is a leading practitioner in Clinical Negligence and Personal Injury claims. Lizanne has a distinguished reputation for representing Claimants with highly complex claims for catastrophic injury. In clinical negligence she has particular expertise and experience in birth damage and neo-natal claims but acts in claims arising in a wide range of circumstances. In personal injury she acts for Claimants with head injuries, spinal injuries and other complex multiple injuries.

Lizanne's work also involves multi-party actions and she recently acted for over 700 Claimants in the litigation against Mr Ian Paterson, Spire Healthcare and HEFT. Lizanne has also been instructed in a number of multi-party actions arising out of sexual abuse and physical abuse of children and adults in institutions including the Jimmy Savile litigation and the Winterbourne View claims. Lizanne is now acting for woman abused by Mr Harvey Weinstein. Claims against private hospitals, the catholic church and local authorities have involved a number of cases which have resulted in the development of the law in respect of vicarious liability.

Lizanne is recommended as a leading and a star silk for both the clinical negligence and personal injury fields by Chambers & Partners Directory UK and in the Legal 500.

Since 2016, Lizanne has frequently been named both the Legal 500 'Personal Injury & Clinical Negligence Silk of the Year', and Chambers and Partners 'Personal Injury & Clinical Negligence Silk of the Year'.

In 2020, Lizanne was awarded 'Personal Injury and Clinical Negligence Silk of the Year' by Legal 500.

"She has a fantastic ability to make you always feel like you're her number-one priority." "A formidable silk with a reputation that demands respect and recognition. The efficacy and speed at which she is able to cut through to the key issues in the most complex of cases is quite remarkable." "A cutting-edge leader in catastrophic cases. She's forward-thinking and highly constructive. A stellar talent."

Chambers & Partners 2021

'A force of nature who has worked out the answer and moved on before most people have even registered the question.'

Legal 500 2021

"A very commanding advocate." "She is extremely hard-working and very knowledgeable." "She can unravel the most complicated cases and put them in simple terms, which is such a skill. She's also very approachable and very pleasant to work with."
