

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Gideon
Barth
Call: 2015

Gideon has a busy practice spanning all areas of Chambers' work including clinical negligence and personal injury, public and human rights law, inquests and public inquiries, and tax.

Before coming to the Bar, Gideon obtained a First Class degree from Cambridge University where he read History, before achieving a distinction on the GDL.

Clinical Negligence

Gideon is regularly instructed in clinical negligence claims by both claimants and defendants.

He regularly advises, settles pleadings and acts in clinical negligence claims across a broad spectrum of medical work. He has experience in high-value claims, complex causation arguments, secondary victim claims, issues of informed consent and Fatal Accidents Act claims.

Gideon also often appears before coroners in inquests relating to topics ranging from medical negligence to mental health issues and nursing care.

Inquests

Gideon regularly appears in inquests relating to topics ranging from deaths in custody, medical negligence, mental health issues, nursing care to road traffic accidents. He acts for families, doctors and other interested persons.

He was instructed as junior counsel to the Coroner in the Inquests into the Birmingham Pub Bombings (1974). He appeared in the Court of Appeal in the associated judicial review, Coroner for the Birmingham Inquests (1974) v Hambleton and others [2018] EWCA Civ 2081.

Public Law

Gideon is developing a varied practice in public law and human rights law.

Gideon was instructed by HMRC in an appeal to the First-tier Tribunal (Tax Chamber) relating to authorisation under the WOWGR legislation (Whittalls Wines Limited and Another v HMRC [2018] UKFTT 0036(TC)). He was led by Stephen Nathan QC and Isabel McArdle.

He appeared as junior counsel in the Court of Appeal in Coroner for the Birmingham Inquests (1974) v Hambleton and others [2018] EWCA Civ 2081. He is currently instructed as junior counsel to the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA), working on the Accountability and Reparations investigation. Gideon has a particular interest in Article 2 inquests and public inquiries into historical and contemporary events.

Gideon has been instructed on immigration judicial review claims, unlawful detention, claims relating to discrimination in prisons and articles 2, 3 and 8 ECHR matters. He has worked on unlawful detention claims, claims against the police and claims involving breaches of confidentiality, privacy and data protection. Gideon is keen to expand his practice across a range of public law matters, spanning immigration law, data protection / cybersecurity and tax.

He has added to a wealth of experience gained during pupillage in which Gideon assisted in judicial review claims in respect of deaths in custody, immigration appeals and a number of article 8 challenges. He also worked on group litigation touching on private and public international law, conflict of laws, jurisdictional disputes and claims for breaches of A1P1 in environmental law.

He is appointed to the Attorney General's C Panel of Civil Counsel.

Public Inquiries

Gideon is currently instructed as junior counsel to the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA), working on the Accountability and Reparations investigation.
