

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Suzanne Lambert

Call: 2002

Suzanne Lambert has a broad civil and public law practice. She undertakes a wide range of common law cases, with a particular focus on healthcare and medical law, including clinical negligence and inquests, but also contractual matters involving institutions and GPs, cases involving ethical questions such as consent to treatment, human rights, mental health law, confidentiality issues and product liability. She also has extensive experience in personal injury, judicial review, professional discipline and regulatory law, as well as public inquiries. She is recommended as a leading junior by Legal 500.

She is instructed by both Claimants and Defendants in a wide variety of cases arising from allegations of clinical negligence. She acts in both low-value cases as well as high-value cases involving serious and catastrophic injuries (for example, cerebral palsy, spinal injuries, neurological injuries, loss of fertility, IVF and surrogacy, and delayed diagnosis of cancer). She has experience with complex legal issues such as contributory negligence, apportionment between Defendants, fatal accident claims, consent, and secondary victim claims.

Suzanne has appeared in a number of different fora (including Tribunals, Coroner's Courts, the General Medical Council, the General Dental Council, and the Nursing and Midwifery Council), and she has experience of all levels of courts, from the County Court up to the Supreme Court and Privy Council.

'Outstanding ability to digest complex legal issues and explain these to lay clients in everyday language.'

Legal 500 2021

'Suzanne is incredibly hard working, leaving no stone unturned, analytical and demonstrates good judgement. She is unflappable and a robust advocate. Her calm demeanour assisted greatly with a particularly challenging client.'

Legal 500 2021

Clinical Negligence

Suzanne is instructed by both Claimants and Defendants in a wide variety of cases arising from allegations of clinical negligence.
