

Leo Cogin

Call: 2000

Leo Cogin's practice is in family law. He accepts instructions in all areas of law concerning children including private and public law. He has represented clients at all levels of tribunal from the family proceedings court to the Court of Appeal.

Before coming to the bar, Leo worked for several local authorities and also for the homeless charity SHELTER in both the London Housing Advice Centre, and in their central legal services team.

Children (Public Law)

In care work, Leo is experienced primarily in the representation of parents and children and has also represented local authorities.

Selected Cases

- Re: M [2005] EWCA Civ 1594 [2006]1FLR 1043: Interim care order – removal.

Children (Private Law)

Leo's private law practice encompasses 16:4 applications, declarations of parentage and leave to remove from the jurisdiction.

Domestic Violence & Injunctions

Leo has many years' experience of dealing with victims of domestic violence.

Education

- MPhil (Cantab)
- LLB (Hons) (Lond)
- BA (Hons)

Memberships

- FLBA