

1 CROWN OFFICE ROW

Scott Storey
Call: 2015

Scott Storey's practice has a focus on Court of Protection proceedings, public law and human rights, police law and inquests.

Scott is ranked a "Rising Star" in the Legal 500 for Court of Protection and Community Care. He regularly appears in the Court of Protection instructed by public bodies, litigation friends (including the Official Solicitor), family members and deputies.

Scott appears before all judicial tiers in the Court of Protection and has been instructed in reported judgments. He acts in cases encompassing personal welfare, medical treatment, property and affairs and deprivation of liberty challenges.

Scott's civil practice has an emphasis on cases involving public bodies and human rights. He has been instructed in cases involving the police and acts in claims under the Human Rights Act 1998.

He also appears in the Coroner's Court and represents all interested persons at inquests, including families, NHS trusts and local authorities.

'Scott puts a lot of thought into his advice and drafting. He is very knowledgeable within his area of law and is a very safe pair of hands.'

Legal 500 2024

"Scott is extremely knowledgeable, incredibly hard working and approachable. His advocacy is persuasive. He provides well-researched arguments."

Legal 500 2023

'Scott's attention to detail is immaculate. He is also very responsive, approachable and accessible. He determines the key issues in a case decisively and offers clear routes forward with options to overcome

Court of Protection

Scott welcomes instructions across the full range of Court of Protection proceedings.

Health, Welfare and Deprivation of Liberty

Scott acts in cases in which both mental capacity and best interests are in dispute. He has experience of interim and final hearings involving issues such as residence, care, medical treatment and contact. Scott also accepts instructions relating to the inherent jurisdiction of the High Court in respect of vulnerable adults.

Property and Affairs

Scott has a broad property and affairs practice with particular experience in contested applications for the appointment and removal of deputies and cases concerning the operation and revocation of LPAs and EPAs.

Selected Cases

- BP v Surrey County Council & Anor (No 1) [2020] EWCOP 17: Appeared before the Vice President of the Court of Protection on behalf of a local authority in an urgent application relating to COVID-19.
- BP v Surrey County Council & Anor (No 2) [2020] EWCOP 22: Second judgment before the Vice President relating to issues surrounding COVID-19.
- Re A: Successfully represented a local authority in a section 21A application concerning an objection to a residential placement, involving multiple hearings in which both capacity and best interests were contested.
- Re D: Instructed by the Official Solicitor in an urgent application following a care home having given notice to terminate a placement.
- Re H: Represented a family member in a case involving serious safeguarding allegations and disputed issues surrounding residence, care and contact, which ultimately settled after a number of hearings.
- Re E: Acted for a local authority in a capacity hearing involving an acquired brain injury with independent expert evidence relating to various domains of capacity.
- Re C: Successfully represented a family member in a two-day final hearing challenging two LPAs for health and welfare and property and financial affairs.

Inquests

Scott represents all interested persons at inquests, including families, NHS trusts and local authorities.

Selected Cases

- Re F: Represented a local authority in a four-day inquest concerning a man who died falling at a building site.
- Re B: Represented a local authority concerning a woman who died from choking on food in a care home.
- Re R: Represented an NHS trust concerning a man who died following surgery for an abdominal aortic aneurysm.
- Re H: Represented a local authority in a two-day inquest concerning a woman who suffered multiple organ failure arising from sepsis.
- Re C: Represented a local authority concerning a woman who died following cardiac arrest in a care home.
- Re T: Represented a local authority concerning a woman who died at home following a fall.

Local Government & Public Law

Scott accepts instructions across a broad range of public law matters, including claims under the Human Rights Act 1998 and advice and representation on issues relating to community care.

Selected Cases

- Re X [Determination No 3 of 2020]: Successfully advanced legal submissions on behalf of a local authority in an ordinary residence determination by the Secretary of State.
- Re A: Advised and prepared pre-action representations in respect of a claim under the Human Rights Act 1998 concerning an unlawful deprivation of liberty in which limitation and quantum were in dispute.

Police Law

Scott accepts instructions in all matters involving the police, including police disciplinary proceedings, appeals to the Police (Discipline) Appeals Tribunal and civil actions for assault, malicious prosecution, false imprisonment, etc.

Direct Access

Scott accepts work from lay clients via Direct Access. You can view his profile here.

Awards

- Dean's Award for Top Performing Student in Civil Advocacy, MMU Law School
- Exhibition Award, Inner Temple
- Duke of Edinburgh Entrance Scholarship, Inner Temple

Education

- MMU Law School, BPTC (Outstanding) (2015)
- Lancaster University, LLB (First Class) Hons (2013)